Halle Mastroberardino

Halle Mastroberardino (she/her) is thrilled to be judging in the 2023/2024 dance competition season. With over a decade of experience as a competitive dancer, Halle's journey led her to discover her profound love for Musical Theatre. Halle not only thrives in the spotlight but also shares her passion with others through teaching, choreography, directing, and, of course, adjudicating dance competitions nationwide.

Halle attended Point Park University, where she earned her BFA in Musical Theatre with a minor in Dance, which laid the foundation for her career. She has been seen on professional stages throughout the country, as well as Off Broadway. Some favorite roles include Peggy Sawyer in 42nd Street, Dance Captain/Featured Player in Pippin, Adella in the Little Mermaid, and many more. Having established herself in New York, Halle remains dedicated to her own growth as a dancer and performer, with a mission to share that wisdom and passion in every educational setting she enters. Halle's greatest joy lies in nurturing and drawing inspiration from the up-and-coming generation of dancers and performers, and she finds that competitions provide the perfect platform to ignite the passion of dance and performance within others. Halle is currently on the roster of judges with Impact Dance Adjudicators.

Sam Quinn

Sam Quinn received his BFA in Dance from the University of Arizona. Favorite credits include with Bad Boys of Ballet, Radio City Christmas Spectacular starring The Rockettes, NBC Upfronts with Pitbull and J Balvin and numerous regional musical theatre productions including Crazy For You, Mary Poppins and Footlose. Sam was the organizer of the viral #BoysDanceToo movement leading a ballet class in Times Square to emphasize that dance is for everyone! He is a sought after guest teacher, adjudicator and choreographer and is currently on faculty at Elite Academy of Dance in Shrewsbury, Massachusetts. Sam is ecstatic to be back with Impact Dance Adjudicators this season and cannot wait to see the talent across the country! Follow Sam on social @samquinn.
